

A Word from Father Gerry

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Parish Business Manager

After 26 years of exceptional service to our parish, Lee Kessen will be retiring on June 30, 2018. In 1991 Lee volunteered to join the committee to help Fr. Jack Heitzman, then pastor, oversee the construction of Memorial Hall and additional classrooms. In 1992, Fr. Smith hired Lee as the parish business manager, probably the first in the diocese.

Since then, the job of parish business manager has become more and more complicated and encompassed more and more aspects of parish management. Just think about the technological changes in that time span. Lee has taken on each new development of his responsibilities with patience, humor and great competence.

Anyone who has worked with Lee in any capacity knows his was never just a job. He was baptized at St. Joseph, received First Holy Communion and Confirmation and was married in St. Joseph Church. He and his wife, Linda, raised their family in the parish. His personal loyalty to the parish has served us extraordinarily well. Often times, he had to balance the many individual needs and wants of parishioners with the big picture and overall well-being of the parish – not always an easy thing to accomplish. Virtually every parishioner has benefited from Lee Kessen’s dedication to our parish.

We will be announcing plans for the parish to acknowledge Lee’s tremendous service. In the meantime, please express your gratitude to him for a “job” well-done.

Tim Dunn has accepted the position as our new business manager as of May 1, 2018, working with Lee in the transition period. Tim is a member of St. Philip Parish in Melbourne. He comes to us with 23 years’ experience in various leadership roles in operations and project management with Fidelity Investments. He brings not only a great skill-set but a desire to work with a sense of mission for St. Joseph Parish. We’ll all come to know Tim better in the years ahead.

I want to publicly thank Sue Greis, Dale Losey, Tom Rawe and Jim Zilliox, the committee members who interviewed applicants for the position and checked references.

Your pastor and brother in Christ,

Fr. Gerry Reinersman

Evangelization Weekend

This weekend is Evangelization Weekend in our parish, when we make an extra effort to invite those who are not Catholic to consider inquiring about the Catholic Church and beginning the process of RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

We can “advertise” in the bulletin, on message boards, on our website or Facebook page and invite people to inquire about the Catholic faith. However, the most effective way to bring a person to Christ is by personal invitation. Jesus didn’t pin up flyers. He personally invited people to join him. This is what we must do.

Give prayerful consideration to who in your life might be waiting for that personal invitation from you. Sometimes a person has an interest in the Church but is hesitant or unsure. Your invitation may be what is needed to move that person to take that first step.

If you are not Catholic but would like to know more about the Catholic Church, we invite you to inquire. There is NO OBLIGATION. Just call Vicki Klocke or Fr. Reinersman. You can begin the RCIA with no commitment, but we have a good feeling you will like what you experience and want to stay.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

We are assured in this reading that, excepting this incident, the Church was fundamentally at peace and growing steadily. Surface tensions may occur, and this is to be expected. Life is messy, after all. 'Twas always thus and 'twill always be. The only real trouble arises when the Church fails to adhere to Jesus as the sole source of its life. The second reading can be seen as operating instructions to help the Church avoid this sad state. We are advised to live by faith in the name of Jesus Christ and by a love that shows in deed and truth. That kind of active, honest love is a good test of our adherence to Jesus, the vine.

Like the early Church, we may be faced with injustice and a lack of tranquility inside and outside our ranks. We are called to pray for peace and justice and to act in love and deed to bring about that very peace and justice. If we do not, there is no truth in our words. We can ask ourselves quietly and our communities out loud how willing we are to act as people grafted tightly to Christ. How willing are we to accept irresponsible disengagement from the place where we live? How willing are we to choose virtual lives, "wired" to someone else's machinery?

Jesus calls for our solidarity in him, which is the source of our solidarity with one another. This solidarity means engagement. Our prayers and deeds and openness cannot exist in some ethereal realm. They must be down-to-earth and carried out by down-to-earth people, like us. Human connections have fragrance and taste and texture and warmth.

First, we are called to consider the source, the risen Lord. Then to consider the flowering—the Church, that is, the people. This is the continuing Easter time of new growth and flowering. This is spring time for the soul. We are to support one another in our efforts to be at peace and to act in fairness. We are asked to take on the tough love that shows in the deeds that match our words.
