Retirement Fund for Religious

Support religious communities. “Your generous contribution helps us to care for our retired sisters and enables our younger sisters to continue in active ministry,” writes a religious sister. Your gift to today’s collection for the Retirement

Fund for Religious provides vital support for the retirement needs of senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests. It also helps ensure that younger members can continue the good works of their elders!

NOTRE DAME HOUSE UPDATE

I would like to thank the STP Group for their continued help with the house for the Notre Dame Sisters. A big Thank You goes to the Notre Dame House Committee, Jim Pelgen, the St Mary’s Ladies Society for the donation of Curtains and Rods. The stove, hood and refrigerator have been donated. The new windows have been installed by Wayne Steffen, Dennis Phirman and Tim Kramer. KenMark has refinished the hardwood floors. The area carpet for the Living room has been ordered from Pfferman Flooring. The shrubbery and landscaping has been installed by Brian Stegman. We have collected about $2,500 of our goal of $15,000. Please be as generous as possible. Make checks payable to St. Joseph Parish with “Service Project” in the memo field. Sister Marla Monahan and Sister Dennise Wagenlander will probably move in the week of Dec 15th.
 Thanks Again!
 Roger Keller

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Once upon a time there was a monastery in which all the monks were either sad or grumpy. At the far corner of the monastery grounds sat a dilapidated hut that was visited now and again by an old hermit. None of the monks ever spoke to the old hermit, but whenever he was in the hut, the monks seemed happier and treated one another with more kindness.

One day, the abbot invited the hermit to come to the monastery proper. All the monks assembled, and when the hermit arrived, he embraced each one. The old hermit spoke no words. Neither did any of the monks. Then, after a long while, the hermit began to weep—softly at first, then louder. Soon, all the monks were weeping as well.

At last, the hermit spoke. "My brothers," he said, "you are not happy serving God. You want my advice, but I have none. However, I do have a secret that I can share with you. Listen carefully, because once I tell it to you, no one must speak it aloud ever again."

The monks bent forward to listen. Every ear was at attention. The old hermit's face glowed as he whispered, "The Messiah is among you." With that, the hermit turned, left the monastery, and was never seen again.

At first, the monks were deeply troubled by the hermit's message. As time went by, however, a gradual change came over the monastery. Every monk began to treat every other monk as if he were very, very special. The monks acted as if they had found a precious treasure buried in one another's hearts. The change in the monastery was so great that people from far and wide soon came to visit. When they left, they left changed by the monks' prayer and praise. The monks were sharing the hermit's secret—not by telling it aloud, but by living it aloud.

We know the hermit's secret. It is our joy to pass it on, not by telling it aloud, but by living it aloud. Advent is the special time that helps us get ready to celebrate the joy of the Messiah who is present among us. But, shhhh! It's a secret. Pass it on!

Saint of the Week

St. Rose of Lima

(1586-1617)

Memorial: August 23

Rose was born to parents of Spanish descent in Lima, Peru during the early years of the evangelization of South America. So great was her devotion to God that she refused to marry despite the urging of her parents. They refused to allow her to enter a convent, so she lived at home in penance and solitude as a member of the Third Order of St. Dominic. She eventually set up a room in the house where she cared for the homeless, the sick and the elderly. Her model for holiness was St. Catherine of Sienna.

Rose is known and remembered for some of the severe penances she took upon herself such as fasting 3 times a week, wearing rough clothing, and wearing a metal-spiked crown, concealed by roses (she is usually depicted wearing the crown of roses). She was thought to be a beautiful woman, so to guard against vanity and protect her purity, she cut off her beautiful hair and rubbed pepper on her face to disfigure her skin.

Rose is the patron saint of the Americas / South America / Latin America, Peru, the Philippines, and florists. Her patronage of the Americas and her status as the first canonized saint of the Americas is the reason she was chosen as one of the saints depicted in the St. Joseph, Cold Spring sanctuary.

The above information was excerpted "Saint of the Day" at www.americancatholic.org and the Catholic Encyclopedia at www.newadvent.org Check out these websites for more information on the saints.

ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL NEWS

From Mrs. Melissa Holzmacher, School Principal

The students at St. Joseph are very active in the music ministry at school masses. Every week we have student instrumentalists and a group of singers to lead the music at our school masses.

There are a wide variety of instrumentalists that currently play at masses, including percussionists, guitarists, violinists, and flutists. We are very lucky to have a growing band program at St. Joseph. As the band students become proficient at their instruments, they often volunteer to play at school masses.

In order to participate in the music ministry at school masses, the students must meet on the morning of mass before school from 7:30 until about 8:05 in the music room for rehearsal with Mrs. Schwegmann and Ms. Hetterick. That means the students must get to school much earlier than usual, which often means waking up earlier than on a typical school morning. This sacrifice demonstrates our students' enthusiasm and dedication to their music ministry.

The student church musicians inspire other students to get involved in vocal and instrumental music, both as a hobby and as a ministry. The student vocalists and instrumentalists work cohesively as a team and take satisfaction in the music they make. Our school musicians make Wednesday and Friday morning masses very special indeed!
