

A Word from Father Gerry

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I am overwhelmed by your kindness and generosity in celebrating the 40th anniversary of my ordination to priesthood. Your cards and notes of congratulations and affirmations are humbling, to say the least. They give me a lot to live up to and make me want to be a good priest and the pastor you deserve. The new alb and monetary gift, sneakily collected while I was at the mission in Jamaica, is more than generous. I will donate portions of it to Mustard Seed Communities and St. Vincent de Paul, and make good use of the rest. I also appreciate all of the personal donations to St. Vincent de Paul and Mustard Seed Communities in my name.

As much as anything, I am grateful we were able to have a parish community celebration. In last Sunday's bulletin, I wrote, "a priest's faith, gifts and talents form his ministry... (and) the People of God help to form the priest." You have helped me to mature in Christ and grow as a priest. That is why it is important to me that so many St. Joe parishioners participated in the anniversary in one way or another.

The St. Mary Ladies' Society took care of some of the hospitality. The Drama Club tended bar for the luncheon. St. Joseph Boosters on Sunday afternoon turned Memorial Hall from a reception hall into a school cafeteria in about 45 minutes. Our wonderful parish office staff, Carrie Hamberg, Barb Kling, Jean Suttmiller and Tim Dunn, planned and carried out all the details of invitations, catering and program organizing. Laura Levermann, our sacristan, went out of her way to make sure everything was just right in the church. Kari Fischer made sure all the events were posted to our social media outlets. Steve Gooderson, Parish Council President was the emcee for the celebration. Connie Ruprich, our director of music ministry, did a fantastic job of preparing music for the Mass. Many guests commented how beautiful the music was at Mass. Of course, I am grateful that Bishop Foys was able to be here for the 11:30 Mass. He also complimented the parish for a beautiful celebration.

You made my 40th Anniversary celebration a day I will remember as a day St. Joseph Parish really shined. Thank you for all your kindnesses and ways you have inspired me.

Your pastor and brother in Christ,

Rev. Gerald L. Reinersman

EVERY WEDNESDAY St. Joe Parishioners, NKU students and local Catholics visit with Jesus from 9:30-6:30 in the Holy Family Center Chapel (old convent chapel). Some of our parishioners have had their scheduled hour since 1992 when Wed. Adoration was first begun here to pray for religious vocations. These parishioners are well aware that Eucharistic Adoration in our parish is both a PRIVILEGE and a RESPONSIBILITY. Several times in the past months, parishioners who cover one of those 9 time slots couldn't make their hour due to sickness or a problem and couldn't find someone to fill it. At present we often have only one person praying each of the hours from 10:30-2:00. Those men and women would be so happy to have a partner! *We are ASKING YOU to seriously consider committing to an hour or even a half hour on a weekly basis. This is a Serious Need to keep our Adoration ongoing! You can call Kay at 441-2712 to sign up or ask questions.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

You can understand Simon Peter's hesitation in today's Gospel reading. He has been up all night fishing unsuccessfully, but Jesus tells him to go out and try one more time. Think about what that would mean for Simon. He's a professional fisherman. Here on Simon Peter's "own turf" so to speak—in his area of expertise where he is most comfortable—Jesus tells him to go back out and fish again. Doubting the value in Jesus' idea, Simon says, "Master, we toiled all night and took nothing!" He reluctantly obeys Jesus' command and lowers the nets but does not expect to catch a single fish

When the nets burst with what was probably the largest catch of fish he had ever seen, Simon realizes the awesome power at work in Jesus. He feels badly for having doubted Jesus and unworthy to be in his presence. Simon says to Jesus, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord" (Luke 5:8, RSV).

But Jesus still calls Peter, with all his weaknesses, to follow him and to share the Gospel with others—to become "fishers of men." And he calls us to do the same, even in the face of whatever doubts, fears, and weaknesses we may experience.

Like Peter, we are often reluctant. We feel unworthy to accept such a great responsibility. But Jesus doesn't let us use our unworthiness as an excuse any more than he allowed Peter to do so. He tells us, as he does the fishermen of Galilee, "Don't be afraid!" He will be with us in all we do to spread the Gospel.

FOOD BASKET IN CHURCH

Your donations of non-perishable food items are appreciated. Please check the expiration date on any food donated. Thank you for your generosity.

PRO-LIFE NEWS
Families For Life

People cry over animal abuse commercials, so why don't people cry for babies who are aborted? They are just as helpless as the animals, but they are humans- flesh and blood. Today's society has misguided sympathies.

BABY BOTTLE BRIGADE - PLEASE pick up a baby bottle after Mass today to support our area pregnancy centers with your prayers and donations! It has been found that when a woman who is considering abortion visits a crisis pregnancy center, nearly half of the time she will change her mind and make the decision to give life to her child. When you insert a check, or fill your bottle with currency or coins, you are helping to provide free counseling, material supplies, parenting education, and a hand of friendship to a woman in need. All donations should be returned at Masses next weekend, or no later than February 24! Thank you, in advance, for your generosity!

ST. ELIZABETH HOSPICE regularly hosts orientation classes for those who wish to volunteer. The classes explore issues on death and dying as well as the overall concept of hospice care. There is no cost or obligation to volunteer for those attending hospice training. Classes are held throughout the year. The first session can be completed on your own time and ending with a final day-long or evening session at the Carol Ann & Ralph V. Haile Hospice Center at 483 South Loop Road in Edgewood. To register call Debbie Holloran, Hospice Volunteer Coordinator at 859 301-4622 or email at Debbie.Holloran@stelizabeth.com.

FORESTERS NEWS...Our next meeting will be Tuesday February 19th at 7:30 in Kelley Hall. Our next youth/family event will be Saturday February 23rd, NKU Basketball Game at 7:00pm. Our Children's Choir will be singing the National Anthem. This will be the last regular season home game and the last chance to see our own Drew McDonald. Please contact Amy for tickets, she will be sending a reminder email. The State Court will be sponsoring a Euchre Tournament again this year on March 2nd in the Activity Center doors open at 6:00 play starts at 7:00. Come and join Catholic Charities' Outreach program, the Mercy Mat Ministry! Mercy Mats are sleeping mats for the homeless created from recycled plastic grocery bags. Each durable, light-weight mat provides a cushioned protective barrier against the cold and moisture.

We invite you to the Mercy Mat Ministry's gathering the third Thursday of the month from 9:00-11:00 AM at Catholic Charities. Our next gathering will be Thursday, February 21, 2019. What to bring? Sharp scissors! Other needs? The ability to crochet or willingness to learn (although not required). The method used is a single crochet, the simplest form of crocheting. Catholic Charities is located at 3629 Church St., Covington (next door to Holy Cross HS). Contact Charlotte Boemker, (859) 581-8974 ext. 121. Due to an overwhelming response to our plastic bag collection, we are no longer accepting plastic bags at this time! Thank you to those that helped us reach our goal.
