

A Word From Father Gerry

SOLEMN CLOSING of EUCCHARISTIC DEVOTIONS and BENEDICTION

4:00 pm

Sunday, November 17, 2013

The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed at the end of the 11:30 am Mass until Solemn Closing and Benediction at 4:00 pm on Sunday.

Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament deepens our awareness of this gift of Eucharistic faith, which, in turn helps us to live the faith we profess. These devotions highlight the significance of our Eucharistic faith. Those who desire to root their families and themselves in the traditions of our faith will want to participate in these beautiful devotions.

Weather permitting, we will process outside the church to symbolize our willingness to carry our love of Christ into the world.

Fr. Michael Hennigan will give the homily. He was ordained last June and is parochial vicar at St. Catherine in Ft. Thomas.

Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is a great opportunity for personal or family prayer and to join with parishioners in an expression of faith in the presence of our Lord Jesus in the Eucharist.

Please offer a little time in prayer to strengthen your love for Jesus in the Eucharist and/or attend the Solemn Closing of our Eucharistic Devotions at 4pm on Sunday. You won't be sorry.

NOTE-If you are participating in the 40 Hours Closing Procession please meet in the hallway below church by 3:45 on Sunday, Nov 17th.

Bishop Foys invites all the faithful to join him and the priests and deacons of the Diocese for Solemn Vespers to close the Year of Faith in our Diocese at the Cathedral Basilica of the Assumption on the Solemnity of Christ the King, Sunday, November 24 at 3:00pm. The celebration will include exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, a rosary, Vespers and Benediction. A bus will transport people from St. Joes parking lot to the Cathedral and back. A sign up sheet for the bus is in the church vestibule or you can call Carrie in the rectory 441-1604.

"Year of Faith Trivia Questions"

PRAYER

Q1: What kind of prayer is the appropriate human response to God's gifts?

Q2: What is it called when we ask God for a special favor?

Q3: What is it called when we pray not for our own interests, but for the needs of others?

Q4: What kind of prayer is homage of the mind and respectful silence before God our Creator?

Q5: What is the great Christian prayer of Thanksgiving, also called the sacrifice of praise?

Answers can be found on page 6.

ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL NEWS

From Mrs. Melissa Holzmacher, School Principal

As we begin a new trimester, we also begin a new focus for our school theme. We are to work at being the voice of Jesus in our words. Words are a powerful tool. Our words can be gentle and bring life or they can be hurtful and unkind. How we speak to others should reflect the voice of Jesus and how he used his words to heal, forgive, comfort, and bring life to others. In the book of Proverbs we are told that "a gentle tongue is a tree of life, but perverseness in it breaks the spirit." As Christians, we are called to build up the Body of Christ. Let us be mindful of the words we use when speaking to others. May our words be words of love and respect. Psalm 19:4 is a perfect prayer to guide us in using words of life: "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer."

YOU COULD BE THE FACE OF PROVIDENCE IN THE WORLD TODAY!

The Associate Community of the Congregation of Divine Providence are lay men and women who along with the sisters share in the mission, vision, and spiritual life of Providence through prayer, ministry, relationship, celebration and works of mercy.

An associate does not profess vows with the congregation. Associates gather for prayer, sharing and mutual support to energize themselves to carry the spirit of Providence to their families and communities.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

We can imagine Jesus and his disciples lingering in the huge and beautiful Temple, this durable place that took fifty years to build. This Temple, says Jesus, can tumble down. The sun can be merciless and the sky bone dry. The earth can open. This can all happen.

But there are bigger concerns than these. His disciples can expect to be roughly treated because they have followed him. They may even be betrayed by friends and family. Their own personal lives can be stretched to the breaking point. When this happens, as it surely will, they need not rehearse what they will say, for he will be their wisdom and strength. In patient endurance they shall save their very lives. That is the extreme situation Jesus put before them. And the solution and their salvation lie in complete dependence on his presence with them.

Father Richard McAlear from Boston will be at St. Patrick's Parish in Maysville, Ky. on Nov. 18th AT 6:30 PM for Mass and a Healing Service. He will also be at St. Phillip's in Melbourne, Ky. on Nov. 21st at 7:00 PM for Mass and a Healing Service. Fr. McAlear was at St. Joseph Parish a few years ago.

Did you know? In desperation, a single, pregnant woman wrote to Pope Francis about her situation earlier this year. She never expected a reply, but was shocked when The Holy Father telephoned her. He praised her for rejecting the suggestion of the child's father to abort the baby. And The National Catholic Register reported that the Pope assured her that a child is a "gift from God" and "a sign of divine Providence".

STUDENTS! MARCH FOR LIFE, WASHINGTON, D.C. will take place Wednesday, January 22. Families For Life will again help sponsor students from our parish. Funds are limited, so please contact Kay at 441-2712 as soon as possible or by the deadline, November 20!
