THANK YOU-The family of Jim Klump want to thank Fr. Reinersman, the Bereavement Committee, the Resurrection Choir and our parish community for their assistance in celebrating the life of our son, brother and uncle. It is times like this that you truly appreciate how special and supportive our parish family is and how proud we are to be a part of it.

THE PARISH NEEDS YOUR HELP..Jim Smith has very generously printed and folded our Sunday bulletin for many years. Jim, currently, has some medical problems that will prevent him from giving this stewardship for the parish. Please keep him in your prayers.

We are looking for someone who can give 3 - 4 hours a week on Wednesday or Thursday, or two people who can share this simple job on alternating weeks. It requires very basic knowledge, or willingness to learn, of a copying machine and a simple folding machine.

If you are willing to give this necessary service to the parish, or willing to learn about it, please call Lee Kessen (297 2273) or Carol Breitenstein (927 2271) at the rectory.

Gospel Reflection ...It was a Friday, almost forty years ago. Mom, the regular cook of the family, was out. Dad was at the stove. Knowing it was Friday (meatless in those days) we kids had badgered Dad to fix something simple, something good, something everyone would eat—pancakes.

As we plunked ourselves down at the table, things boded well. After grace, Dad sauntered over to the stove. Then, from above each of our heads, Dad kerplopped something onto our plates. We sat in shock. It was puffy, brown-flecked, and bigger than our plates. No one said anything. Then, Dad put one of those UFOs (Unidentified Fried Objects) on his own plate, sat down, and reached for the butter and syrup. We just sat.

At last, the youngest, the dumbest, or perhaps the bravest among us, spoke up. "What is it?" My father looked up from his plate and scanned his brood with a frazzled look that seemed to ask, "Are these knuckleheads really mine?" Then, shaking his head, he replied, "It is just what you asked for. It is a pancake. You wanted pancakes. I made pancakes. Eat the pancakes." We ate. Dad was right. It was a pancake. The real thing.

Like the Israelites in the desert some four thousand years ago, like the crowds who followed Jesus some two thousand years ago, and like the kids who sat around a kitchen table some forty years ago, we keep making the same mistake. We ask for bread, but fail to recognize it when we get it. This Sunday, when someone presents you with bread and says, "The Body of Christ," remember, this is the bread you've been asking for. Believe it. This bread is the real thing.

DIOCESAN / PARISH ANNUAL APPEAL Update

Gifts and pledges for our 2009 DPAA continue to come in to benefit the diocesan ministries and the parish. At this point 665 St. Joe families have already contributed or pledged $121,514 toward our $115,800 share of the diocesan goal. That means $5,714 will come back to us in a rebate if all the pledges are met.

Thank you to everyone who has participated in this year's DPAA. It is not too late to make a contribution. DPAA envelopes can be found in the top row of the brochures racks at the church doors.
