

DIocese of Covington
INTERNATIONAL MISSION NEEDS
COMBINED COLLECTION

On a recent Sunday morning, in a small town in Belarus there was a tremendous stir. Hundreds of people came to witness an extraordinary event...the consecration of a new Catholic Church. Decades before, a Catholic Church had stood there. During the Soviet era, however, it was shut down and it eventually collapsed.

During the midst of this tremendous celebration, one woman quietly cried, "I am thinking about my parents, and the day I walked by here as a little girl. There was nothing but a pile of ruins. I asked them what it was. They said a church. For years, I thought a Church meant a mass of rubble."

Miracles like this happen every day through the work of the Catholic organizations sponsored by our Diocesan International Mission Needs Collection. Your one gift will bring the hope and the love of Jesus to the whole human family through Catholic Relief Services, the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, the Holy Land Collection, the Church in Latin America and the Pontifical Mission Aid Societies. Please give generously.
