Dear St. Joe Parishioners,

We begin in earnest the Diocesan-Parish Annual Appeal this weekend. Every year this annual appeal calls upon us to expand our focus beyond our own parish. The DPAA is our vehicle for serving the larger Church we are part of. We must not ignore the mission of Jesus Christ as it is carried out within our own Diocese of Covington.

Either directly or indirectly, virtually each member of every parish benefits from the DPAA. The DPAA serves parishioners who make use of the services of Catholic Charities, through its counseling and/or adoption services. Engaged couples are helped to prepare for marriage. Our religion teachers in the Parish School of Religion, elementary and high schools receive instruction to help them in their ministry. Men are prepared to serve as our priests; men like Fr. Josh Lange, soon-to-be-Fr. Ian McDole, Deacon Nick Rottman and seminarian John Michniuk. Retired priests, such as our beloved Fr. Joe Rueter and Fr. Bob Henderson, receive the assistance they need.

Catholic college students have opportunities to participate in the life of the Church at the NKU Newmen Center and Thomas More College. Men and women seeking marriage annulments count on competent diocesan staff.

In less obvious, but very important, ways the DPAA assists each parish by supporting its administrative functions through Diocesan services. The DPAA, for example, relieves individual parishes from payroll management, personnel services and insurance administration.

Regardless of how we personally benefit from the DPAA, we have a responsibility to the wider Church. Supporting the DPAA acknowledges that we want to make sure that the many facets of the Church's mission are carried out effectively in our parishes and in our diocese.

"God loves a cheerful giver" is the theme of this year's DPAA. I believe some of the "cheerfulness in giving" comes from knowing that we are providing a necessary contribution to mission of Jesus Christ through the DPAA. Thank you for your prayers and contribution on behalf of the Diocesan-Parish Annual Appeal.

Fr. Gerry Reinersman

STEWARDSHIP THANK YOU!!

Over that last several weeks, Theresa Connaughton has been painting (with the help of her husband and sons and the STP guys) the 12 bedrooms of the convent, in preparation for our next Interfaith Hospitality Network host week; May 2 – 8. Not that the Sisters were all that hard on them, but the walls were due for a fresh coat of paint. Theresa's stewardship of time and talent will help our IHN guests know how special they are and brighten up their stay with us. Thank you, Theresa!!

BLOOD PRESSURE SCREENINGS will take place this weekend, April 17th & 18th in the rectory on Saturday & Sunday evening or in the Activity Center after Sunday morning masses. All are invited to have their blood pressure checked by a parish health nurse.

The HillToppers to Begin Rehearsals June 2nd

The new alumni theatre group at NCC will begin work on it's second performance on June 2nd in the Black Box Theatre. The HillToppers will present "A Knight to Remember", and original musical comedy written by Kevan Brown. This is a fun show with lots of big production numbers and songs that everyone will be familiar with..

The HillToppers will rehearse every Sunday and Wednesday evening at 7:00 in the Black Box Theatre beginning June 2nd. The group is open to any NCC, OLP, NC or ANDP alumni. In addition to performers, we are also looking for backstage people to be in charge of scenery, costumes, concessions, PR, hair & makeup and tickets. If you are interested in taking on any of these responsibilities, please email Kevan Brown at kevanbrown@gmail.com.

Those interested in performing, please send email at your earliest convenience to kevanbrown@gmail.com. Please indicate what you would like to do and if you have a specialty area such as dance, singing, acting, etc. Depending on the number of people interested, there should be a spot for everyone. We may have to do a very informal, painless audition just to place people in the correct vocal ranges and such.

Performance dates will be August 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th in the Black Box Theatre. If need be, an additional performance or two could be added the following weekend depending on ticket sales.
